

Struggling to keep all plates spinning as a new Supervisor?

Then the HAT E Course “Becoming an Effective Supervisor” could be for you.

A 4-day residential course, run at an elegant 4-star hotel in Eastbourne, the E Course will develop a number of core skills through a variety of teaching techniques. Areas covered include:

- communication;
- competitive tendering;
- delegation;
- team work;
- leadership;
- planning;
- completion of assignments;
- client meetings;
- supervising staff.

However, the exact content of the course does depend on the requirements of the participants, as drawn out in the introductory session). We pride ourselves on tailoring each course to the participants’ specific needs.

The course is being held 20 – 23 November 2018, commencing at 11:15am on Tuesday and finishing at Midday on Friday.
