

Auditing in 2021

ISA's (UK) 540, 570 and 700

UK's largest accounting firms lambasted by watchdog for 'unacceptable' work

From FT.COM, 14th July 2020

This 2-hour online course aims to assist auditors in their preparation for audits of entities with accounting periods commencing on/after 15 December 2019 (i.e. typically 31 December 2020 year ends and onward). We will look at the key issues and provide practical guidance on how to interpret and apply the new Standards.

The course will cover the following topics:

- » Background to the changes
- » Regulatory feedback
- » The changes required by the ISA's
- » Practical considerations on implementing the changes
- » Example documentation

This course is being presented on-line as follows:

- » Wednesday 4 November 2020: 10am
- » Wednesday 3 February 2021: 10am

The course is priced at £85 per attendee for member firms, and £110 per attendee for non-member firms. Where a firm books multiple places, we will only charge for the first six attendees on each date.

If a firm wishes to book their own session, enabling further discussion with the presenter of the firm's approach to these issues please email roger@hatgroup.co.uk.

To book a place on one of public courses above, please email hat@hatgroup.co.uk. Member firms will be invoiced once the course takes place. Please ensure you book for all likely participants as places are limited by the platform being used.
